NATIONAL SEMINAR on SOCIOLOGY OF HEALTH

EMERGING HEALTH PROBLEMS & ITS CHALLENGES

26th – 27th March, 2020

About the Department:

Department of sociology was started in 2011 in Rajiv Gandhi University, Ronohills, Doimukh, Arunachal Pradesh. Presently it offers MA in Sociology, MPhil, PhD in relevant subjects and Post Graduate Diploma in Environmental Sanitation. The main objective of the department is to develop learning of Sociology as a discipline and to develop research and promotion in the field of Social Science. The department provides a brilliant scope for the students and research scholars to be self reliant in their subject and the special teaching, learning and extension equip them to become employable members in the society.

About the Seminar:

The National Seminar on Sociology of Health (NSSH 2020) is one of the earliest efforts of its kind in North East India. It will be held during 26 -27th March, 2020 at Rajiv Gandhi University, Ronohills, Doimukh, Arunachal Pradesh. NSSH 2020 is being organized by Rajiv Gandhi University with the support of UGC, Ministry of Human Resources, New Delhi, Gol. The contemporary society faces various health challenges. The emerging health problems and most recently the COVID19, the main aim of the seminar is to provide the platform for Students, Research Scholars and Academicians to share the knowledge and ideas in the recent trends in the field of Society, Health and Illness followed by Problems and Challenges.

NSSH 2020 will provide an excellent national forum for sharing knowledge and a result in Sociology of Health and wellness. The aim of the seminar is to provide a platform to the participants from academia in sharing cutting-edge development in the field of Sociology of Health.

- The Proceeding will be archived and well documented.
- The Proceeding will be submitted to the university constituted editorial board for final proof reading.
- The presentations with FULL paper will be published in renowned Journal/book with ISSN Numbers.

The primary goal of the seminar is to promote Sociology of Health as a discipline in academic syllabus of colleges and universities. The seminar also will promote medical and scientific information interchange among the Students, Researchers and Academicians working in the field of Sociology of Health. It is also believed that the seminar will be held annually to make it an ideal platform for people to share views and experiences in Society and Health related areas.
